

Lawrence "Lucky" Leprechaun

555 Blarney Castle Road ■ Blarney Village, Ireland ■ 345 67 891011 ■ 4_leaf@clover.com

Career Goal: Seeking Position as Guardian of the Pot of the Gold

Personable, sprightly and high-energy elf who is trustworthy, hardworking and reliable. Seeking to leverage strong security background as the current caretaker of the Blarney Stone to become the next Pot of Gold guardian. Enthusiastic, "roll-up-your-sleeves" work ethic demonstrated through both present and prior employment (former cobbler/shoemaker), as well as through volunteer activities (Notre Dame "Fighting Irish" mascot, Lucky Charms® runner-up spokesmodel). Solidly credentialed (BS in security), bilingually fluent (Gaelic) and internationally traveled.

Key Skills

- Safety & Security Management
- Caretaking & Asset Protection
- Loss Prevention & Risk Assessment
- Undercover Investigations
- Teambuilding & Supervision
- Public Relations

Professional Experience

BLARNEY STONE, Blarney Village, Ireland

Head Leprechaun Caretaker, 2004 to Present

Leprechaun Apprentice, 2002 to 2004

Entrusted with highly responsible role to safeguard the Blarney Stone. Supervise a 12-elf security contingent and maintenance crew in daily activities ensuring the protection of stone's magical properties and the safety of tourists visiting the stone and Blarney Castle. Key Accomplishments:

- Earned fast-track promotion from initial apprenticeship to head caretaker, outpacing the typical leprechaun career progression by three years.
- Thwarted potentially disastrous graffiti campaign planned by notorious troll gang through partnership with local law enforcement. Co-led undercover investigation that exposed plot, led to multiple arrests and prevented defacement of national landmark.
- Commended for ensuring the protection and preservation of major tourist attraction, and assist thousands of visitors annually in safely kissing the Blarney Stone.

LUCKY'S SHOE REPAIR, Black Forest, Germany

Shoe Cobbler, 1998 to 2002

Founded and grew profitable business, repairing shoes, boots and vintage accessories for local forest dwellers. Earned designation as a "Master Cobbler" and built a loyal customer following. Negotiated lucrative sell-off of shop to enable pursuit of long-time passion for security work.

Activities & Volunteerism

Spokesmodel Runner-Up, Lucky Charms® Cereal (1996 to Present)

Mascot, University of Notre Dame "Fighting Irish" (1995 to 1996)

Singled out among peers for exemplary communication, public relations and interpersonal skills through selection as mascot for NCAA Division I football team, and as spokesmodel runner-up for one of GM's premier cereal brands.

Active Volunteer, Greenpeace (2003 to Present)

Promote "green" living through active participation in recycling campaigns.

Advisor, 4-H National Headquarters (1999)

Developed winning four-leaf clover design adopted nationwide as organization's logo.

Education

SHAMROCK UNIVERSITY, Dublin, Ireland

Bachelor of Science in Security, 2004

CLOVER COMMUNITY COLLEGE, Greenville, SC

Associate of Arts in Shoe Cobbler Arts, 1998

Foreign Languages

Fluent in Irish Gaelic, conversant in Scottish Gaelic